Profile of the University

Since its founding in June 2003, The University of Cambodia (UC) has become one of the leading and most reputable higher education institutions in Cambodia. It is an intellectual community where students learn how to explore their curiosities, create and share knowledge, refine and challenge ideas, promote greater understanding, and serve their families and communities. The rigorous and supportive learning environment at UC fosters open and constructive dialogue and promotes strong critical, analytical, and creative thinking skills among students, while preparing them to address the increasingly complex issues in society and discover meaning in their own lives through offering innovative undergraduate, graduate and professional courses. The University recognizes the need to train and nurture a new generation of highly capable young thinkers who contribute to the intellectual, economic and social development of Cambodia, and who lead with values, integrity and compassion. The aforementioned values of the University are reflected in its pair of mottoes, “In Pursuit of Knowledge, Wisdom” and “Building Tomorrow’s Leaders.”

The University of Cambodia is a private university that offers a range of degrees including Associate, Bachelor, Master, and Doctoral programs. All Colleges and Schools are officially recognized by the Royal Government of Cambodia (RGC), the Ministry of Education, Youth and Sport (MoEYS), and the Accreditation Committee of Cambodia (ACC). In addition, UC is also a member of the Cambodian Higher Education Association (CHEA). Currently, the University operates six colleges and two schools: the College of Arts, Humanities and Languages, the College of Education, the College of Law, the College of Social Sciences, and the College of Science and Technology and College of Media and Communications, and Techo Sen School of Government and International Relations (TSS) and The Tony Fernandes School of Business. In 2013, UC opened the Khmer based program called the Khmer Track with the understanding that not all students may be confident in learning another language. The content and the quality of the programs remains the same; the only difference is that the courses are taught in the medium of Khmer, instead of English. International Track students must complete our rigorous Intensive English Program (IEP), known as the Fastrax Program, conducted through our Center for English Studies (CES), which offers a variety of English courses, before entering their degree program. The IEP program teaches students all they need to know to be proficient in English in an academic setting, including essay writing, organizational and time management skills, research and referencing, and critical thinking skills. CES offers numerous other courses both for those who wish to continue their studies at UC and those who simply want to improve their English in a fun setting with qualified instructors. For example, CES offers ESL courses for those who want to learn the language at a slower rate, and ESP courses for those who wish to learn terminology and vocabulary related to a specific profession or area of study. In addition, the UC Academic Foundation Department (AFD) helps new BA students transition into university learning through its Foundation Year Program which covers a variety of academic disciplines, including mathematics, science and technology, English language and writing, and social science, among others. All teaching faculty and management staff are selected among the best and brightest in their respective fields. UC attracts qualified and innovative employees locally and internationally, and is proud to host a culturally diverse faculty and staff.

In Academic Year 2017-2018, The University of Cambodia will launch two new schools: the School of Foreign Languages and the School of Creative Arts. The School of Foreign Languages will offer several languages for students to learn, including Chinese, Japanese, Korean, Thai, and French, and the School of Creative Arts will allow students to specialize in a variety of arts-related fields, such as Music and Song, Dance, and Dramatic Arts.

The University is constantly striving to improve itself, and adjust to the needs of the current economic and educational environment. The University also plans to launch a number of short course/certificate programs which will be available through all colleges, schools and centers, in an effort to provide much needed training to individuals who are unable to enroll in a full degree program. These courses are intended to provide additional training in any given field, to enhance one's professional skills, to improve upon skills needed for a given position, or to improve foreign language use in general or for a specific scope of work.

The University is home to numerous centers which each focus on an important aspect of academic culture. Launched in 2014, the ASEAN Study Center (ASC) serves as a policy and academic think tank, conducting research for publication, and engaging in discussion on specific issues related to ASEAN. The center also serves as a resource for UC students to learn more about ASEAN members, and future integration through the ASEAN library. In 2013, the University expanded the Institute for Research and Advanced Studies (IRAS), which works in conjunction with UC faculty to conduct diverse research projects year round. The University officially launched the Skills and Career Development Center (SCDC) in late 2014, which serves students with academic counseling, skills development, study abroad opportunities, and provides alumni services. The Council for Research and Creativity (CRC) was created with the overall aim to contribute to knowledge and capacity building across all sectors, including scholarly inquiry into scientific, social, political, technological, and industrial issues. The University also creates a number of publications every year, including the quarterly UC Bulletin, the Cambodian Journal of International Studies (CJIS), the Monograph Series, UC Occasional Paper Series, and UC Working Paper Series. In addition to its Centers and Institutes, the University boasts one of the country's and region's most prominent think tanks, the Asia Economic Forum (AEF).

The University of Cambodia campus is located on more than 3 hectares of land in Phnom Penh. The university building, which was completed in December 2015, is able to accommodate over 10,000 students. The building hosts one of the nation's largest libraries, the Toshu Fukami Library. In addition, the University boasts the innovative Toshu Fukami E-library, which provides students with access to computers, internet, and the most up to date e-resources. In addition, students can access a large online library database with links to virtual libraries from universities across the globe. The University has upgraded its multi-media language lab with all new computers programmed with access to language learning programs such as Rosetta Stone.

The University is invested in producing well-rounded students, and encourages students to participate in student organizations, social work, internships, and competitions. In fact, UC has one of the most active and developed student organizations in the country, with UC Student Federation (UCSF), UC Student Senate (UCSS) members organizing successful university-wide functions that include educational, social, cultural, and community service activities. The UC Debate Club (UCDC) is another leading student organization on campus. It is one of the most successful university debate organizations in Cambodia, winning first place numerous times throughout the years in national debate competitions. If interested in social work, students are encouraged to join The University of Cambodia Cambodian Red Cross Youth (UCCRCY) (recognized by the Cambodian Red Cross), to help improve the lives of vulnerable people throughout Cambodia. UC has introduced the UC Sports Club, which consists of a football team and an athletic team; both teams have participated in various match including friendly and competitive national level matches. In addition to the numerous student organizations available to UC students, the University provides an abundance of internship opportunities in various fields including research, journalism, IT, office work, and web design.

Alumni constitute another vital component of the UC community. As the number of UC alumni grows with every graduating class, so too does their contribution to the workforce, and society—contributions which make the University very proud. UC alumni have gone on to become leading professionals in the business and legal community, government officials in various Ministries, and leaders in prominent NGOs, among many other successful professions. In addition, countless UC alumni have received prestigious scholarship awards to continue their education abroad. The University supports the development of alumni and celebrates their successes through the UC Alumni Association (UCAA). In addition to providing alumni with a professional network of peers, the organization connects them back to UC, and encourages them to contribute to the student body through professional workshops, lectures, alumni reunion, and networking opportunities.

Because of both the limited resources available locally and the worldwide trend towards globalization, the University has established and continues to establish formal partnerships with prominent universities in the region and elsewhere, as well as with local and regional institutions. It has signed Memoranda of Understanding (MOUs) with universities in the United States, Thailand, India, Indonesia, Malaysia, Israel, the Republic of Korea, China, and Japan to strengthen international collaboration in research, academia, and intercultural understanding. UC has also established links with local and international organizations and associations, including the United Nations Development Program (UNDP), the Asia Foundation, the European Union (EU), the People Health Development Association (PHD), the Worldwide Support for Development (WSD), the Cambodian Institute for Cooperation and Peace (CICP), Association of Southeast Asian Institutions of Higher Learning (ASAIHL), and the International Foundation for Arts and Culture (IFAC), among others. These partnerships provide the UC community with access to outstanding professional and educational networks and resources through increased opportunities for the exchange of experiences, and ideas. Since 2004, UC has conferred honorary degrees to 41 exceptionally distinguished persons, including nine Nobel laureates in 2009 and 2010, to honor their contributions to a specific field or to society in general.

In Academic Year 2016-2017, a total of 399 students (including 224 female students) are graduating and receiving their Master's or Bachelor's degree; 19 students (including 9 female students) are receiving their Master's degree and 380 students (including 216 female students) are receiving their Bachelor's degree. Currently, there are 3,483 students enrolled in all the different degree programs at UC, including 1,764 female students.

To continue to support and contribute with the Royal Government of Cambodia in reducing poverty and socio-economic development, to date the University has awarded 4,050 scholarships, including 500 scholarships offered for Term 1 of Academic Year 2017-2018 (excluding other Scholarships provided to high-ranking Cambodian government officials and individuals) for those enrolled in Associate's, Bachelor's, Master's and Doctoral programs.

THE SCHOOL OF GRADUATE STUDIES (SGS)

- To produce graduates with knowledge and skills which are most suitable to labor-market and needs for social and economic development of Cambodia.

Mission

Today's fast-changing environment, with the increasing sophistication, regionalization and globalization of the mass media and the rapid evolution of the social media, places new and constantly evolving demands on those who are directly involved in such media. Others in the public relations and other industries, whilst less directly involved, need to be aware of these developments in order to better fulfill their respective duties and communicate synergistically with those who are expected to implement their ideas. Thus, the College prepares students to be productive, creative and responsible global citizens with the personal theoretical and practical tools and the professionalism needed to pursue meaningful careers and do services for the benefit of the community at large and promote Cambodia's standing on the regional and world stages. Develop the College as a center of teaching excellence through the encouraging logical and critical thinking, including by adapting and applying emerging technologies and approaches to enhance less formalized, more interactive classroom instruction.

Goals

- To provide real knowledge and skills to graduates who can have multiple opportunities in the world of job market and society.
- To teach students to be more open their mind and can use their talents together with modern technology to create or invent something which is useful for publics and country as a whole.
- Produce graduates who do not only become good human resources for the nation, but also can compete with region and international community in the job market.

THE TECHO SEN SCHOOL OF GOVERNMENT AND INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS (TSS)

Profile

The Techo Sen School of Government and International Relations (TSS) (Techo Sen School), as an integral part of The University of Cambodia, is dedicated to the development and training of leaders and researchers to work in Cambodia, ASEAN and international organizations. Graduates of the School can find productive careers in the civil and diplomatic services, domestic and multinational corporations, and regional and international organizations like the ASEAN Secretariat, Asian Development Bank, The World Bank, The International Monetary Fund and the United Nations and its agencies.

The Techo Sen School provides international standard, both graduate levels, non-partisan education and research. Its programs and research initiatives are designed for carefully chosen and highly motivated candidates who are starting their careers or have advanced to positions of higher responsibility in their chosen vocations. As a learning-centered institution, the School provides a unique and challenging educational environment which blends theory and practice with critical thinking and research skills for strategic and sound public policy and corporate decision making. It will enable leaders to navigate through the many challenges in a rapidly changing technology driven world. The academic programs have been designed to enable graduate students to examine and discuss political, cultural, business and technical ideas and issues.

At the end of their programs, they would have acquired creative and innovative approaches with requisite skills, attitudes and knowledge and ethical and moral values required for success in their respective fields. In that way, they can make significant and lasting contributions to society. They become leaders in political, economic and social development.

The Techo Sen School is also a policy think tank which undertakes research on Cambodia. It also provides consulting, policy advisory and market and economic research services to the public and private sectors and organizes corporate briefing and international conferences on issues relevant to Cambodia and ASEAN.

Vision

Inspiring Leaders for Innovation and Internationalization through Dialogue and Development

Mission

The Techo Sen School of Government and International Relations prepares its students to be productive, creative, and responsible global citizens – by becoming lifelong learners. The TSS provides a balance of both theoretical and practical tools and the professionalism needed to become agents of change for the community at large and to promote Cambodia's standing at the local, regional and world stages. Good governance is vital to progress everywhere and The Techo Sen School of Government and International Relations' learning-centered educational experience raises the norms of governance and bureaucracy in Cambodia and, in turn, improves the lives of Cambodians – thus also contributing to the transformation of the region. In short, the Techo Sen School of Government and International Relations makes the region, and the world, a better place.

Program Offerings

1. English as a Second Language (ESL) is designed to help you read, write, speak and understand everyday English, from Beginner to Advanced levels. Taught by experienced foreign and native teachers, this course uses carefully chosen textbooks to improve your English skills and prepare for IELTS testing.
2. Intensive English Program (IEP) provides all students with the knowledge necessary to excel in an academic setting. This course gives students the high level of English they need to study at the University of Cambodia, or at universities abroad.
3. English for Specific Purposes (ESP) offers tailor-made ‘on request’ programs specializing in English for Business Communication, Banking and Finance, Law and the Service Industry.
4. Special English Skills Program allows students to choose which skills they want to improve on: reading, writing, speaking or listening.

Our graduates are widely recognized for the high level of their English skills and abilities. Come learn for yourself, and step into the future with us.

SKILLS AND CAREER DEVELOPMENT CENTER (SCDC)

Profile

The Skills and Career Development Center (SCDC) is a student-centered department that provides personalized “high-touch” service to every student who visits either by appointment or as a walk-in. The SCDC facilitates growth, wellness and development of the student as he/she takes full advantage of his or her college experience and the Center promotes student learning and development both inside and outside the classroom.

Each year, SCDC sponsors hundreds of programs, services and activities created to engage students’ bodies, souls and spirits. These programs include, but are not limited to, public speaking classes, student orientations, CV and cover letter writing, interview preparation workshops, scholarship application assistance, study abroad assistance, mentoring programs, and volunteer/internship opportunities. The mission of the Skills and Career Development Center is to provide students with academic resources to assess, supplement, and encourage their growth as motivated and successful members of the campus community.

THE ASEAN STUDY CENTER (ASC)

Profile

Cambodia joined the Association of Southeast Asian Nations (ASEAN) on 30 April 1999. Since then, Cambodia has held ASEAN Chairmanship twice, once in 2002 and again in 2012. In facilitating the country's integration into the ASEAN Economic Community to be realized on 31st December 2015, The University of Cambodia (UC), one of the leading excellent higher education institutions in Cambodia, established the ASEAN Study Center (ASC) being officially endorsed by the Ministry of Education, Youth and Sports of Cambodia on 15th January 2014. The ASC serves as a policy and academic think tank, conducting research studies and exchanging dialogues on issues related to ASEAN, and enhancing the balanced and integrated development of the three ASEAN Communities, including Political-Security Community, Economic Community and Socio-Cultural Community. Significantly, the Center encourages efforts to promote greater ASEAN awareness in Cambodia, thus contributing to the country's deep integration into the ASEAN community, and gain support for the ASEAN related projects.

Vision

To be the ASEAN Center of Excellence in the pursuit of the University of Cambodia's life-long learning academic institution as the top quality academy in South East Asia and Asia.

Mission

1. To promote awareness and understanding of ASEAN within Cambodia;
2. To promote awareness and understanding of Cambodia amongst other ASEAN members of ASEAN;
3. To provide stakeholders' perspectives on the impacts of existing policies and other initiatives to the Royal Government of Cambodia, the ASEAN Secretariat, and other member states to be well-informed for their decisions;
4. To enhance regional integration and cooperation for the benefit of all member states through publications of the research results, trainings, capacity building programs, workshops, meetings, conferences, ASEAN Ambassador lecture series and the exchange of the best practices

Structure

The ASEAN Study Center shall comprise three supporting units: the Unit for Administration and Publication; the Unit for Study and Research; and the Unit for Project Development, Coordination and Management. The ASC is headed and governed by a Director and management team, and it is supported by the Advisory Board.

COUNCIL FOR RESEARCH AND CREATIVITY (CRC)

Profile

The Council for Research and Creativity (CRC) is a coordinating body of stakeholders whose purpose is to encourage individuals and groups with a University connection to become actively involved in innovative and informative research, especially with regard to Cambodia's continuing development as a nation and as a member of the regional and global community. The overall aim of the CRC is to contribute to knowledge and capacity building across all sectors, including scholarly inquiry into scientific, social, political, gender, technological, and industrial issues. The Council strives to promote an appreciation and understanding for research; build the capacity in research and analytical thinking in the UC community; support original and creative research activities; become a forum where UC intellectuals can network and exchange ideas with others; mentor students to undertake research; inspire faculty and staff to conduct research; and encourage a wide range of publications in all forms. CRC manages the UC Working Paper Series, which is an undergraduate research journal, and works with the Institute for Research and Advanced Studies in publishing the Cambodian Journal for International Studies.

Membership

Members of the CRC include the President of The University of Cambodia; the Vice President for Research, Development, and Policies; the Vice President for Academic Affairs; the Vice President for Operations; the Deans for Graduate Studies and Undergraduate Studies; the Deans and Associate Deans of the Schools and Colleges; and representatives of the Institute for Research and Advanced Studies (IRAS), ASEAN Studies Center and the Board of Trustees. CRC manages the publication of the Cambodian Journal of International Studies, which contains a variety of articles, interviews, and book reviews from multiple sources, including various faculty members, full-time staff members, graduate students, undergraduate students, and members of the UC community.

INSTITUTE FOR RESEARCH AND ADVANCED STUDIES (IRAS)

Profile

The Institute for Research and Advanced Studies (IRAS) plays an active role in supporting useful and productive research at The University of Cambodia, and thereby promotes the image of the University as a center of excellence in research. IRAS develops the research strategy of The University of Cambodia, within the framework approved by the Committee and set out in the Strategic Plan, and shall keep under review the research activities of The University of Cambodia in order to encourage and facilitate research of the highest quality. It also oversees and promotes the development and integration of The University of Cambodia knowledge exchange and impact strategy with its commitment to research excellence. With respect to publications, IRAS manages the UC Monograph Series, which is designed for in-depth analyses of particular issues, generally of a specialist nature, and works with CRC to publish the Cambodian Journal for International Studies.
