PROFILE OF THE UNIVERSITY

Since its founding in June 2003, The University of Cambodia (UC) has become one of the leading and most reputable higher education institutions in Cambodia. It is an intellectual community where students learn how to explore their curiosities, create and share knowledge, refine and challenge ideas, promote greater understanding, and serve their families and communities. The rigorous and supportive learning environment at UC fosters open and constructive dialogue and promotes strong critical, analytical, and creative thinking skills among students, while preparing them to address the increasingly complex issues in society and discover meaning in their own lives through offering innovative undergraduate, graduate and professional courses. The University recognizes the need to train and nurture a new generation of highly capable young thinkers who contribute to the intellectual, economic and social development of Cambodia, and who lead with values, integrity and compassion. The aforementioned values of the University are reflected in its pair of mottoes, “In Pursuit of Knowledge, Wisdom” and “Building Tomorrow’s Leaders.”

The University of Cambodia is a private university that offers a range of degrees including Associate’s, Bachelor’s, Master’s, and Doctoral programs. All Colleges and Schools are officially recognized by the Royal Government of Cambodia (RGC), the Ministry of Education, Youth and Sport (MoEYS), and the Accreditation Committee of Cambodia (ACC). In addition, UC is also a member of the Cambodian Higher Education Association (CHEA). Currently, the University operates six colleges and four schools: the College of Arts and Humanities, College of Education, College of Law, College of Media and Communications, College of Social Sciences, College of Science and Technology, School of Creative Arts, School of Foreign Languages, Techo Sen School of Government and International Relations (TSS), and The Tony Fernandes School of Business. In 2013, UC opened the Khmer-based program called the Khmer Track with the understanding that not all students may be confident in learning another language. The content and the quality of the programs remain the same; the only difference is that the courses are taught in the medium of Khmer, instead of English. International Track students must complete our rigorous Intensive English Program (IEP), known as the Fastrax Program, conducted through our Center for English Studies (CES), which has now changed into the School of Foreign Languages-SFL, which offers a variety of English, French, Korean, Japanese, Chinese, German, and Thai courses, before entering their degree program. The IEP program teaches students all they need to know to be proficient in English in an academic setting, including essay writing, organizational and time management skills, research and referencing, and critical thinking skills. SFL offers numerous other courses both for those who wish to continue their studies at UC and those who simply want to improve their English in a fun setting with qualified instructors. For example, SFL offers ESL courses for those who want to learn the language at a slower rate, and ESP courses for those who wish to learn terminology and vocabulary related to a specific profession or area of study. In addition, the UC Academic Foundation Department (AFD) helps new BA students transition into university learning through its Foundation Year Program which covers a variety of academic disciplines, including mathematics, science and technology, English language and writing, and social science, among others. All teaching faculty and management staff are selected among the best and brightest in their respective fields. UC attracts qualified and innovative employees locally and internationally, and is proud to host a culturally diverse faculty and staff.

The University is constantly striving to improve itself, and adjust to the needs of the current economic and educational environment. The University also plans to launch a number of short course/certificate programs which will be available through all colleges, schools and centers, in an effort to provide much needed training to individuals who are unable to enroll in a full degree program. These courses are intended to provide additional training in any given field, to enhance one's professional skills, to improve upon skills needed for a given position, or to improve foreign language use in general or for a specific scope of work.

The University is home to numerous centers which each focus on an important aspect of academic culture. Launched in 2014, the ASEAN Study Center (ASC) serves as a policy and academic think tank, conducting research for publication, and engaging in discussion on specific issues related to ASEAN. The center also serves as a resource for UC students to learn more about ASEAN members, and future integration through the ASEAN library. In 2013, the University expanded the Institute for Research and Advanced Studies (IRAS), which works in conjunction with UC faculty to conduct diverse research projects year round. The University officially launched the Skills and Career Development Center (SCDC) in late 2014, which serves students with academic counseling, skills development, study abroad opportunities, and provides alumni services. The Council for Research and Creativity (CRC) was created with the overall aim to contribute to knowledge and capacity building across all sectors, including scholarly inquiry into scientific, social, political, technological, and industrial issues. The University also creates a number of publications every year, including the quarterly UC Bulletin, the Cambodian Journal of International Studies (CJIS), the Monograph Series, UC Occasional Paper Series, and UC Working Paper Series. In addition to its Centers and Institutes, the University boasts one of the country's and region's most prominent think tanks, the Asia Economic Forum (AEF).

The University of Cambodia campus is located on more than 3 hectares of land in Phnom Penh. The university building, which was completed in December 2015, is able to accommodate over 10,000 students. The building hosts one of the nation's largest libraries, the Dr. Haruhisa Handa Library. In addition, the University boasts the innovative Dr. Haruhisa Handa E-library, which provides students with access to computers, internet, and the most up to date e-resources. In addition, students can access a large online library database with links to virtual libraries from universities across the globe. The University has upgraded its multi-media language lab with all new computers programmed with access to language learning programs such as Rosetta Stone.

The University is invested in producing well-rounded students, and encourages students to participate in student organizations, social work, internships, and competitions. In fact, UC has one of the most active and developed student organizations in the country, with UC Student Federation (UCSF), UC Student Senate (UCSS) members organizing successful university-wide functions that include educational, social, cultural, and community service activities. The UC Debate Club (UCDC) is another leading student organization on campus. It is one of the most successful university debate organizations in Cambodia, winning first place numerous times throughout the years in national debate competitions. If interested in social work, students are encouraged to join The University of Cambodia Cambodian Red Cross Youth (UCCRCY) (recognized by the Cambodian Red Cross), to help improve the lives of vulnerable people throughout Cambodia. UC has introduced the UC Sports Club, which consists of a football team and an athletic team; both teams have participated in various match including friendly and competitive national level matches. In addition to the numerous student organizations available to UC students, the University provides an abundance of internship opportunities in various fields including research, journalism, IT, office work, and web design.

Alumni constitute another vital component of the UC community. As the number of UC alumni grows with every graduating class, so too does their contribution to the workforce, and society—contributions which make the University very proud. UC alumni have gone on to become leading professionals in the business and legal community, government officials in various Ministries, and leaders in prominent NGOs, among many other successful professions. In addition, countless UC alumni have received prestigious scholarship awards to continue their education abroad. The University supports the development of alumni and celebrates their successes through the UC Alumni Association (UCAA). In addition to providing alumni with a professional network of peers, the organization connects them back to UC, and encourages them to contribute to the student body through professional workshops, lectures, alumni reunion, and networking opportunities.

Because of both the limited resources available locally and the worldwide trend towards globalization, the University has established and continues to establish formal partnerships with prominent universities in the region and elsewhere, as well as with local and regional institutions. It has signed Memoranda of Understanding (MOUs) with universities in the United States, Thailand, India, Indonesia, Malaysia, Israel, the Republic of Korea, China, and Japan to strengthen international collaboration in research, academia, and intercultural understanding. UC has also established links with local and international organizations and associations, including the United Nations Development Program (UNDP), the Asia Foundation, the European Union (EU), the People Health Development Association (PHD), the Worldwide Support for Development (WSD), the Cambodian Institute for Cooperation and Peace (CICP), Association of Southeast Asian Institutions of Higher Learning (ASAIHL), Association of Universities of Asia and the Pacific-AUAP, and the International Foundation for Arts and Culture (IFAC), and Asia Injury Prevention Foundation, among others. These partnerships provide the UC community with access to outstanding professional and educational networks and resources through increased opportunities for the exchange of experiences, and ideas. Since 2004, UC has conferred honorary degrees to 42 exceptionally distinguished persons, including nine Nobel laureates in 2009 and 2010, to honor their contributions to a specific field or to society in general.

For this 14th Annual Graduation Ceremony in the Academic Year 2017-2018, a total of 403 students (including 198 female students) are graduating and are receiving their Master's, Bachelor's and Associate's degrees. 41 students (including 13 female students) are receiving their Master's degree, 356 students (including 183 female students) are receiving their Bachelor's degree and 6 students (including 2 female students) are receiving their Associate's degree. Currently, there are 4,165 students enrolled in all the different degree programs at UC.

To continue to support and contribute with the Royal Government of Cambodia in reducing poverty and socio-economic development, to date the University has awarded 4,440 scholarships, including 390 scholarships offered for Term 1 of Academic Year 2018-2019 (excluding other scholarships provided to high-ranking Cambodian government officials and individuals) for those enrolled in Associate's, Bachelor's, Master's and Doctoral programs.

THE SCHOOL OF GRADUATE STUDIES (SGS)

Profile

The School of Graduate Studies oversees 31 Master of Arts degrees across 5 Colleges and 4 Schools, and 26 Doctoral degrees. The Master's degrees include 5 in Arts and Humanities, 1 in Foreign Languages, 3 MAs each in Education and Law, 10 Master's of Business Administration degrees in the School of Business, 4 Master's Degrees in Social Sciences, 3 Master of Science degrees in Science and Technology, and 6 Master's degrees in the Techo Sen School of Government and International Relations. The UC Doctoral degrees include Doctorates in Education, Law, Business, Computer Science and Social Sciences. These higher degrees help implement the University's mission to become the region's leading university.

The School of Graduate Studies not only helps to administer graduate degrees, but the School also provides personal assistance to achieve the highest possible standards, as well as leadership and mentoring. The School believes that success is a way of thinking, and that higher degrees are an exciting opportunity to explore new ideas and new possibilities with other high achievers. The UC higher degrees are also pathways to new opportunities, and are an indication of excellence. Higher degrees are also rewarded with higher salaries.

The Graduate School is very proud of those who persevere to gain UC higher degrees. Graduates are the voice of The University of Cambodia, and they are also leaders who are making a difference to Cambodia and the region. The success of graduates is also the success of The University of Cambodia. Together, we share a great future, full of potential.

THE SCHOOL OF UNDERGRADUATE STUDIES (SUS)

Profile

The School of Undergraduate Studies (SUS) is one of the most prestigious schools of The University of Cambodia. The school oversees 6 colleges and 3 schools which cover all undergraduate programs provided by UC. The School of Undergraduate Studies not only supervises, oversees, advises and coordinates the undergraduate programs, but it also provides all means of assistance to achieve excellence in education and research since it believes that undergraduate studies is the foundation of success for students in their future careers and lives. The undergraduate programs give students a golden opportunity to learn both hard and soft skills with other students of various backgrounds. The School of Undergraduate Studies is very proud of its graduates who are employed in various positions of all sectors in Cambodia. Their success is the implication of the strong commitment of The University of Cambodia in building strong human resources for the development of Cambodia who will make positive changes not only in the country but also in the region and the world as a whole.

Vision

To achieve national prominence for undergraduate studies that emphasizes SUS is a center of excellence in education and research to prepare tomorrow's leaders.

Mission

To provide undergraduate students with integrated academic experiences and the best learning services that will enable them to successfully achieve their goals as leaders.

Goals

1. To expand and promote an interdisciplinary research program
2. To enrich the learning experiences of undergraduate students
3. To create a foundation for ongoing academic success
4. To ensure effective supervision of the undergraduate programs
5. To develop close cooperation with schools and colleges having similar academic curricula both nationally and internationally

Colleges and Schools

COLLEGE OF ARTS AND HUMANITIES (COAH)

Profile

In a world engaged upon the process of globalization, it is easy to forget that the building blocks of what we see around us tend to be our cultures, our histories, our art and our literatures. Preserving an understanding of these subjects is vitally important, if we are to continue to value cultural diversity and retain our essential humanity. Thus, the disciplines in the College of Arts and Humanities have been a traditional cornerstone of higher education in all of the world's civilizations. Gaining an appreciation of the Arts and Humanities, either in general terms, or through the study of one specific academic area, helps us understand our present circumstances. Subjects such as literature and history are essential in understanding our modern situation and challenges, helping us to understand problems and identify solutions, based on solid and well thought out principles. The Arts and Humanities are about life – past life, present life and the development of future life. Examining these issues is both rewarding and directly relevant to personal learning and growth. Graduates in the Arts and Humanities remain sought after by employers in both Cambodia and the world. They are valued for their transferable skills that serve them well in a broad variety of careers. These skills include excellent communication skills, the ability to analyze intelligently, a qualitative approach to issues and problems and the ability to work unsupervised individually or as part of a team. Perhaps the most valued quality of the Arts and Humanities graduate is the ability to be creative.

Vision

The College of Arts and Humanities (CoAH) envisions preparing students to engage and deal with society by nurturing a broad knowledge and promoting creative and critical thinking skills essential for flexibility to changes of our society and the world at large. We help to develop our students' talents and help them realize their full potential. In addition, we encourage our students to think independently and creatively, but act cooperatively with others in open-mindedness in order to contribute to build our nation, the region, and the world. Our vision is to inspire students to have a passion for learning.

Mission

The College of Arts and Humanities strives to produce graduates who are articulate and are able to think analytically and communicate effectively with others; to provide a high-quality education to students in order to respond to the needs of society, and to energetically support faculties in research.

Goals

1. Enhance the quality of higher education through the quality of teaching and learning in state of the art facilities;
2. Enable students to acquire an in-depth knowledge and soft skills for their future careers and life;
3. Support students, faculties and staff in challenging current issues locally and internationally and
4. Provide our graduates with sufficient critical thinking skills and awareness of society.

COLLEGE OF EDUCATION (COE)

Profile

The College of Education (CoE) is one of the oldest and most prestigious colleges at The University of Cambodia. The College offers both undergraduate and graduate programs in educational science, curriculum design and instruction, and educational administration. Graduates of the CoE have been employed in many fields in governmental ministries/institutions, schools, higher education institutions, and local and international organizations. Some graduates continue to pursue higher degrees at The University of Cambodia, other universities in Cambodia, and universities abroad. The CoE aims to produce graduate teachers who can act as role-models, and thus play a role in guiding Cambodia's future path.

Vision

Our vision is to develop talented individuals for institutions and society at large by empowering them to engage in building, strengthening and promoting high quality education which ensures the sustainable future of Cambodian development.

Mission

- To be a center for academic excellence by providing a challenging curriculum, recruiting qualified faculties, offering the best teaching and learning facilities and environment, and ensuring good learning outcomes.
- Promote research and publications.
- Prepare students to be creative and responsive educators in a complex, diverse world.
- Provide teacher education courses which build the knowledge and skills needed for students to promote paradigms and practices that engender equality and educational success.

Goals

1. To produce graduate teachers who can act as role models and meet these expectations, and thus play a role in guiding Cambodia's future path.
2. To produce graduates who are most qualified for the job market and can help with the social and economic development of the nation through the education domain

COLLEGE OF MEDIA AND COMMUNICATIONS (CMC)

Profile

The University of Cambodia established the College of Media and Communications (CMC) to respond to the needs and demands of students, as well as the labor market; it also wanted to expand its offerings of Bachelor's programs and reflect the trends of higher education. The College of Media and Communications and its Bachelor's degree programs are officially approved by the Ministry of Education, Youth and Sport (MoEYS) and the Royal Government of Cambodia through the issuance of a declaration (Prakas), Prakas on the Approval of College of Media and Communications (Prakas No.689) on March 10, 2015. CMC has best supporting facilities for faculties and students to be used, namely Southeast Asia Television and Radio Stations. CMC was established in the only university in the country that has its own media and communications systems to support teaching and learning practice of students in the fields of media and communications.

Vision

- To provide academic excellence in theoretical and practical training in modern mass media in the context of a broader education in current affairs and related fields as part of a number of different Bachelor's programs.
- To produce graduates with knowledge and skills which are most suitable to the labor-market and needs for the social and economic development of Cambodia.

Mission

Today's fast-changing environment, with the increasing sophistication, regionalization and globalization of the mass media and the rapid evolution of the social media, places new and constantly evolving demands on those who are directly involved in such media. Others in the public relations and other industries, whilst less directly involved, need to be aware of these developments in order to better fulfill their respective duties and communicate synergistically with those who are expected to implement their ideas. Thus, the College prepares students to be productive, creative and responsible global citizens with the personal theoretical and practical tools and the professionalism needed to pursue meaningful careers and do services for the benefit of the community at large and promote Cambodia's standing on the regional and world stages. Develop the College as a center of teaching excellence through the encouraging logical and critical thinking, including by adapting and applying emerging technologies and approaches to enhance less formalized, more interactive classroom instruction.

Goals

1. To provide real knowledge and skills to graduates who can have multiple opportunities in the job market and society.
2. To teach students to be more open-minded and use their talents together with modern technology to create or invent something which is useful for the public and country as a whole.
3. Produce graduates who do not only become good human resources for the nation, but also can compete in the job market both in the region and globally

Degree Programs

The College of Media and Communications provides unparalleled academic programs for both the International Track and Khmer Track as follows:

Bachelor's Degrees

- Media Arts and Studies
- Visual Communications
- Communication Studies
- Journalism Studies

COLLEGE OF SCIENCE AND TECHNOLOGY (CoST)

Profile

The College of Science and Technology (CoST) has witnessed remarkable developments since its initiation in 2003. In 2007, there were only 7 faculty members, 2 labs, and only a handful of students. At the present time, we have 17 outstanding and highly distinguished faculty members and 4 Labs. Additionally, over the growing years of the College of CoST, the College has built lasting partnerships with major computer science and IT companies to provide direct and extensive exposure and practical experience for our students. All these accomplishments have resulted in our graduates being very successful and highly distinguished.

Vision

Educate the next generation of scientists and perform impactful research that advances the technologies of the 21st century

Mission

Our mission is to provide high-quality, broad-based education and experience-based learning in computer science and information technology; to create knowledge through pioneering scholarship and impactful research; to enrich our students' development and leadership skills; and to address pressing local, state, national and international issues in support of the global community.

Goals

1. Increase enrollment into the undergraduate programs.
2. Improve student success through the involvement in research and development projects and early intervention.
3. Investigate the feasibility of offering a 5-year BS/MS program in Computer Science and Information Technology.
4. Reach out to high schools and attract students with personal interaction (particularly important for programming option and Mobile Computing).
5. Strengthen the degree programs of our undergraduates.

THE TECHO SEN SCHOOL OF GOVERNMENT AND INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS (TSS)

Profile

The Techo Sen School of Government and International Relations (TSS) (Techo Sen School), as an integral part of The University of Cambodia, is dedicated to the development and training of leaders and researchers to work in Cambodia, ASEAN, and international organizations. Graduates of the School can find productive careers in the civil and diplomatic services, domestic and multinational corporations, and regional and international organizations like the ASEAN Secretariat, Asian Development Bank, The World Bank, The International Monetary Fund and the United Nations and its agencies.

The Techo Sen School provides international standard, both undergraduate and graduate levels, non-partisan education and research. Its programs and research initiatives are designed for carefully chosen and highly motivated candidates who are starting their careers or have advanced to positions of higher responsibility in their chosen vocations. As a learning-centered institution, the School provides a unique and challenging educational environment which blends theory and practice with critical thinking and research skills for strategic and sound public policy and corporate decision making. It will enable leaders to navigate through the many challenges in a rapidly changing technology driven world. The academic programs have been designed to enable graduate students to examine and discuss political, cultural, business and technical ideas and issues.

At the end of their programs, they would have acquired creative and innovative approaches with requisite skills, attitudes and knowledge and ethical and moral values required for success in their respective fields. In that way, they can make significant and lasting contributions to society. They become leaders in political, economic and social development.

The Techo Sen School is also a policy think tank which undertakes research on Cambodia. It also provides consulting, policy advisory and market and economic research services to the public and private sectors and organizes corporate briefing and international conferences on issues relevant to Cambodia and ASEAN.

Vision

Inspiring Leaders for Innovation and Internationalization through Dialogue and Development

Mission

The Techo Sen School of Government and International Relations prepares its students to be productive, creative, and responsible global citizens – by becoming lifelong learners. The TSS provides a balance of both theoretical and practical tools and the professionalism needed to become agents of change for the community at large and to promote Cambodia's standing at the local, regional and world stages. Good governance is vital to progress everywhere and The Techo Sen School of Government and International Relations' learning-centered educational experience raises the norms of governance and bureaucracy in Cambodia and, in turn, improves the lives of Cambodians – thus also contributing to the transformation of the region. In short, the Techo Sen School of Government and International Relations makes the region, and the world, a better place.

In addition to the above languages, we also offer short courses in German and Thai language programs.

Vision

The School of Foreign Languages (SFL) aims at providing excellent quality of language training, enhancing language competency and communication skills, and preparing students to engage and deal with society by providing a broad knowledge and promoting creative and critical thinking skills essential for flexibility to changes of our society and the world at large. We help to develop our students' talents and assist them to realize their full potential. In addition, we encourage our students to think independently and creatively, but act cooperatively with others in open-mindedness in order to contribute to build our nation, the region, and the world.

Mission

The School of Foreign Languages strives to produce graduates who will be fluent and competent in foreign languages, and they are able to think analytically and communicate effectively with others; to provide a high-quality education to students in order to respond to the needs of society, and to energetically support faculties in research.

Goals

- To build and develop students' language competency, comprehension and professional communication skills;
- To bring practical experiences on language use, literature, culture, leadership skills and social issues into the classroom;
- To enhance the quality of higher education through the quality of teaching and learning in state of the art facilities;
- To enable students to acquire an in-depth knowledge and soft skills for their future careers and life;
- To support students, faculties and staff in challenging current issues locally and internationally and provide our graduates with sufficient critical thinking skills and awareness of society.

SKILLS AND CAREER DEVELOPMENT CENTER (SCDC)

Profile

The Skills and Career Development Center (SCDC) is a student-centered department that provides personalized “high-touch” service to every student who visits either by appointment or as a walk-in. The SCDC facilitates growth, wellness and development of the student as he/she takes full advantage of his or her college experience and the Center promotes student learning and development both inside and outside the classroom.

Each year, SCDC sponsors several programs, services and activities created to engage students’ bodies, souls and spirits. These programs include, but are not limited to, public speaking classes, student orientations, CV and cover letter writing, interview preparation workshops, scholarship application assistance, study abroad assistance, mentoring programs, and volunteer/internship opportunities. The mission of the Skills and Career Development Center is to provide students with academic resources to assess, supplement, and encourage their growth as motivated and successful members of the campus community.

THE ASEAN STUDY CENTER (ASC)

Profile

Cambodia joined the Association of Southeast Asian Nations (ASEAN) on 30 April 1999. Since then, Cambodia has held ASEAN Chairmanship twice, once in 2002 and again in 2012. In facilitating the country's integration into the ASEAN Economic Community which was realized on 31st December 2015, The University of Cambodia (UC), one of the leading excellent higher education institutions in Cambodia, established the ASEAN Study Center (ASC), being officially endorsed by the Ministry of Education, Youth and Sports of Cambodia on 15th January 2014. The ASC serves as a policy and academic think tank, conducting research studies and exchanging dialogues on issues related to ASEAN, and enhancing the balanced and integrated development of the three ASEAN Communities, including the Political-Security Community, Economic Community and Socio-Cultural Community. Significantly, the Center encourages efforts to promote greater ASEAN awareness in Cambodia, thus contributing to the country's deep integration into the ASEAN community, and gain support for the ASEAN related projects.

Vision

To be the ASEAN Center of Excellence in the pursuit of the University of Cambodia's life-long learning academic institution as the top quality academy in South East Asia and Asia.

Mission

1. To promote awareness and understanding of ASEAN within Cambodia;
2. To empower the young people through the United Nations Green Youth Programme for an integrated ASEAN community and Sustainable Development Goals;
3. To promote awareness and understanding of Cambodia amongst other ASEAN members of ASEAN;
4. To provide stakeholders' perspectives on the impacts of existing policies and other initiatives to the Royal Government of Cambodia, the ASEAN Secretariat, and other member states to be well-informed for their decisions;
5. To enhance regional integration and cooperation for the benefit of all member states through publications of the research results, trainings, capacity building programs, workshops, meetings, conferences, ASEAN Ambassador lecture series and the exchange of the best practices

Structure

The ASEAN Study Center comprises three supporting units: the Unit for Administration and Publication; the Unit for Study and Research; and the Unit for Project Development, Coordination and Management. The ASC is headed and governed by a Director and management team, and it is supported by the Advisory Board.

COUNCIL FOR RESEARCH AND CREATIVITY (CRC)

Profile

The Council for Research and Creativity (CRC) is a coordinating body of stakeholders whose purpose is to encourage individuals and groups with a University connection to become actively involved in innovative and informative research, especially with regard to Cambodia's continuing development as a nation and as a member of the regional and global community. The overall aim of the CRC is to contribute to knowledge and capacity building across all sectors, including scholarly inquiry into scientific, social, political, gender, technological, and industrial issues. The Council strives to promote an appreciation and understanding for research; build the capacity in research and analytical thinking in the UC community; support original and creative research activities; become a forum where UC intellectuals can network and exchange ideas with others; mentor students to undertake research; inspire faculty and staff to conduct research; and encourage a wide range of publications in all forms. CRC manages the UC Working Paper Series, which is an undergraduate research journal, and works with the Institute for Research and Advanced Studies in publishing the Cambodian Journal for International Studies.

Membership

Members of the CRC include the President of The University of Cambodia; the Vice President for Research, Development, and Policies; the Vice President for Academic Affairs; the Vice President for Operations; the Deans for Graduate Studies and Undergraduate Studies; the Deans and Associate Deans of the Schools and Colleges; and representatives of the Institute for Research and Advanced Studies (IRAS), ASEAN Studies Center and the Board of Trustees. CRC manages the publication of the Cambodian Journal of International Studies, which contains a variety of articles, interviews, and book reviews from multiple sources, including various faculty members, full-time staff members, graduate students, undergraduate students, and members of the UC community.

INSTITUTE FOR RESEARCH AND ADVANCED STUDIES (IRAS)

Profile

The Institute for Research and Advanced Studies (IRAS) plays an active role in supporting useful and productive research at The University of Cambodia, and thereby promotes the image of the University as a center of excellence in research. IRAS develops the research strategy of The University of Cambodia, within the framework approved by the Committee and set out in the Strategic Plan, and shall keep under review the research activities of The University of Cambodia in order to encourage and facilitate research of the highest quality. It also oversees and promotes the development and integration of The University of Cambodia knowledge exchange and impact strategy with its commitment to research excellence. With respect to publications, IRAS manages the UC Monograph Series, which is designed for in-depth analyses of particular issues, generally of a specialist nature, and works with CRC to publish the Cambodian Journal for International Studies.
